

Statement of Manufacturers Advertised Pricing Policy

It is the corporate policy of C&R Racing Incorporated not to sell its products to approved C&R Racing Incorporated resellers that engage in advertising of prices that are discounted below current C&R Racing Incorporated published MSRP (Manufactures Suggested Retail Price) or that resell to others that engage in such advertising. C&R Racing Incorporated considers advertising to mean the posting or publication of pricing in any written or electronic form. It is not our intention to dictate, or even suggest the prices our resellers charge. However, C&R Racing Incorporated has a reputation of supplying the highest quality products worldwide, and we will exercise our right not to do business with anyone that would jeopardize that hard earned reputation or image by engaging in such advertising practices. This policy is applied unilaterally to all C&R Racing Incorporated resellers without prejudice or exception.

C&R Racing will allow a show special or a quarterly special of MSRP minus 10%. Show specials will be up to 30 days prior to the show end date but only once every quarter (3 months). Show special ads will be email blast, flyers and dealers website ads and must show expiration date. Long term print ads such as catalogs are not to be included unless they expire in the 30 day show special window. All advertised show or special sale pricing can only be for a maximum of 30 days and with in current MSRP minus 10% and must be pre-approved by C&R. This will be strictly enforced. MAP effective on 12/1/2011 and will remain in effect until future notice. Advertised price shall be at C&R Racing Incorporated current (MSRP) pricing. All other terms and policies of the C&R Racing Incorporated Terms and Conditions still apply.
